- 17.6 When elections are to be held (Biennially) each nomination shall be made with the consent of the candidate and shall be signed by at least three (3) full members and shall be delivered to the Secretary. Such nominations shall be in writing and will be open for a period of seven days. Upon the expiry of the seven day period nominations shall be closed and, within seven days after the closing of nominations, the Members shall vote to elect a new Board from among those nominated. Voting shall be carried out by secret ballot at the Biennial General Meeting. The nominees receiving the most votes shall take office in their respective nominated positions at the General Meeting.
- 17.7 The Agenda of the General Meeting will include:
1. The Minutes of the previous meeting
 2. The President's Remarks

3. The Secretary's Report
4. The Treasurer's presentation of the previous years' accounts and financial statements
5. The Election of the new Board
6. Such other business as the agenda may prescribe.

17.8 Quorum

The General Meeting shall transact no business unless there is a quorum. The presence of fifteen members, or one-third of the current membership, whichever may be the lesser, shall constitute a quorum.

17.9 No Quorum

If within half an hour after the time appointed for a meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the to the same day and time in the following week, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, within half an hour of the time appointed, the Meeting shall nevertheless be held and those members present shall constitute a quorum.

17.10 Returning Officer

Prior to the dissolution of the Board, a "Returning Officer" must be elected by the Members present at the General Meeting and this Returning Officer may vote only in the case of a tie, in which case he has a casting vote.

ARTICLE 18 : Special General Meetings

18.1 A Special General Meeting may be called by the Board or on a petition signed by a quorum of members of the Foundation stating the purpose for which such meeting is to be called.

18.2 Special General Meetings shall conform in all other respects to the conditions governing Annual General Meetings except that no business shall be transacted at a Special General Meeting other than that for which it shall have been convened, and except that notice shall be given not less than fourteen days prior to such Special General Meeting.

ARTICLE 19: Implementation of this Constitution

Pursuant to the approval of the Founding Board of Executives of the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc., the Board shall then move a motion by way of Resolution to adopt this Constitution as the Official Constitution of Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.

ARTICLE 20: Amendment of the Rules and Regulations

20.1 Amendment of this Constitution shall be made at a General Meeting of the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.

20.2 Notice of any motion to amend this Constitution and suggested amendments which are to be submitted to a General Meeting shall be forwarded to the Secretary in writing not less than twelve days prior to such meeting at which the Motion is to be entertained.

20.3 In order to be carried, a motion for the amendment must be agreed by a two-thirds majority of the members present. Voting may be cast by Board Members who are in direct contact with the meeting executive at the time of the meeting by telephone or other telecommunications device as may be approved by the Board from time to time.

ARTICLE 21: Legislation, Interpretation and Discipline

21.1 Legislative Power

The Board shall have the power to legislate on any matter not provided for in this Constitution and to formulate and promulgate such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate provided that same are not inconsistent with any of the principles contained in this Constitution.

21.2 Interpretation of the Constitution

1. As to all matters not provided for in this Constitution, the conduct of the affairs shall be regulated by decision of the Board which shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of this Constitution and all rules or regulations made thereunder.
2. The decision of the Board on any question of interpretation, or upon any matter affecting Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. not provided for by this Constitution shall be final and binding upon all members, but subject to appeal at any Annual General Meeting at which time it will be subject to ratification of the majority of the membership of a duly convened Meeting.

21.3 Discipline

1. The Board shall have the power and the right, for good and sufficient reason to suspend from the Foundation, or to impose any such lesser penalty as it shall think proper, on any individual or Group affiliated to Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc., whose conduct is in breach of the by-laws, Constitution, rules or regulations, or if the Group or individual member is likely, in the view of the Board, to bring the Sport, the country or the Foundation into disrepute.
2. The Board shall likewise have the power to expel or disbar from competition any member.
3. In any such case, the Board shall serve written notice by registered mail of its intention to consider disciplinary action and the grounds therein and the Member or Group Co-Ordinator on behalf of his Group, as the case may be, shall be invited to attend a meeting of the Board, or to send a representative, in order to make representations or call evidence before such meeting. The member or Group Co-ordinator may, in lieu of attending or sending a representative to the meeting, submit a written statement in response to the grounds contained in the notice. In no case shall the notice be sent less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the meeting at which the matter is intended to be considered.
4. If two thirds of the Board members, after due consideration of all relevant evidence, including any submissions by the member or Group Co-ordinator on behalf of his Group, find the allegations of misconduct to be substantiated, a motion stipulating penalty shall be proposed and seconded. A motion stipulating penalty and/or termination of membership must receive a majority of two thirds at a General Meeting in order to take effect. The member or the Group Co-ordinator concerned shall be informed in writing of the Board's decision.

ARTICLE 22 : Misconduct of Members

- 22.1 Any member of the Board who becomes aware of an infraction of the Constitution or Rules and Regulations shall bring such infraction to the notice of the offending member. Should the member persist in violation, the matter shall be reported to the Board which may rule on appropriate action.
- 22.2 If the conduct of any member is, in the opinion of any three members who certify the name to the Board in writing, injurious to the interests of the Foundation, that member shall be liable to suspension by the Board or to expulsion by the decision of a General Meeting.
- 22.3 The decision of the Board or of a General Meeting shall be final.

ARTICLE 23: Guyana Shooting Events

- 23.1 The Officer-in-Charge of the Timehri Range, (or any future approved Range), any Member of the National Range Officers Institute of Guyana (NROI GY), a U.K.P.S.A. qualified coach or Range Officer, a U.S.P.S.A. Range Officer, any IROA Range Officer of any club approved by the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. or any Range Officer of any of the affiliate or Internationally governed Sport Shooting institutions shall be a Range Officer of Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.
- 23.2 The Range Officer in charge of the range will always have the power to refuse permission to any shooter whose conduct he considers unsafe, or whose firearm or equipment he considers un-suitable.
- 23.3 Range Rules
 1. The Board shall draw up Range Rules which shall govern the conduct of shooting on any range.
 2. The Range Officers approved by Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. shall be responsible for the strict enforcement of these rules, as well as any which may be in application at ranges under military control.
 3. Only firearms and ammunition suitable for the range in use shall be used.
- 23.4 Visitor Shooters/Competitors
 1. Visitor shooters or competitors may be invited to shoot by the Board of the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.
 2. Such visitors shall automatically become members of the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. for that day.

ARTICLE 24: World Anti-Doping Rules and Regulations

- 24.1 All members of the G.S.S.F. shall abide by the rules, laws and bylaws of the World Anti-Doping Rules and Regulations. The various disciplines will comply with WADA's Rules and the 2015 World Anti-Doping Code.

ARTICLE 25: Insurance

The Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.'s Board shall have the power to decide and secure the necessary premiums to effect the cover of third party claims and to provide an indemnity by way of a public liability insurance policy or otherwise in respect of legal liability for accidents resulting in bodily injury or damage to property arising on any range or at any club premises. The Board shall have the power to secure whatever Insurance Policy it may consider necessary.

ARTICLE 26: Indemnification

By acceptance of affiliation or membership to the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc., and thereby of affiliation or membership in the country, every member or group is deemed fully and absolutely to indemnify the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. and the Board against any claims, liabilities, expenses or demands for any injury, damages, or loss, however sustained or caused, whether by negligence or otherwise, to or by himself, his dependents, heirs or executors at any competition, shooting or other event organised or sanctioned by the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.

ARTICLE 27: Acquiescence to Rules

- 27.1 The payment of subscription entitles a member to enjoy all the benefits and privileges of the Foundation.
- 27.2 The payment of subscription must also be considered as distinctly implying the compliance of the Member with the Constitution and Rules and Regulations of the Foundation, the restrictions they enjoin and the penalties they enact.

ARTICLE 28 : Range Officers

- 28.1 The Board shall appoint such persons as Range Officers as they see fit.
- 28.2 A Range Officer shall be detailed to be present at every event to direct firing operations. Such Officers shall have authority in the event of misconduct by any member, to order the offending member off the range. All such occurrences shall be reported to the Board.

ARTICLE 29 : Alteration of Rules

All alterations, additions or amendments of the Constitution or Rules of the Foundation must be duly passed at a General Meeting, notice of which shall have been given in accordance with Article 17.

ARTICLE 30: Termination

- 30.1 The Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. may be terminated, by resolution at a Biennial General Meeting. A resolution of termination must be carried by not less than ninety percent of the voting members present.
- 30.2 In the event of a motion for termination being carried, the Board shall, after the satisfaction and settlement of all debts and liabilities of the Foundation, proceed to make an inventory of the remaining assets and should there remain any monies whatsoever, this shall not be distributed amongst the members but shall be given or transferred to a charitable organisation(s) having similar objects or shall offer them to the shooting organisation(s) that it shall deem to be the most suitable recipient or recipients.

ARTICLE 31: SEAL and LOGO

The seal and/or Logo, an impression whereof is stamped below, shall be the seal/official Logo of Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc.

We, the undersigned hereby certify that this Constitution was first enacted, duly ratified and adopted by the First Statutorily held Meeting of the Founding Board of Executives of the Guyana Sport Shooting Foundation Inc. on the 6th day of August, 2014.
